..New Wear..

The word "new," as applied to Men's Neckwear, has been so shamefully misused as to have lost its real significance. We have never used it except when its full meaning was realized in its most honest sense. Therefore when we say "new neckwear" we mean such neckwear as has never been seen in this city before.

The Silks Are New In Weave and Coloring.

The shapes are new in form and construction. Ready to wear or to be tied by yourself. You must choose.

Worth $1.00, though we ask but 50c.

THE LAST RITES

Paid to Judge Paull by a Large Concourse of Friends.

THE FUNERAL A NOTABLE ONE.

Members of the Bar From the Four Counties in First Judicial District Attended in a Body—A Thoroughly Representative Gathering—Appropriate Resolutions Adopted by the Legal Fraternity to be Spread on Court Records.

A distinguished gathering of citizens of the First Judicial district paid the last tributes to Judge Joseph R. Paull yesterday afternoon. It was thoroughly representative of the profession the deceased graced for many years and of the community in which he lived, a model man, jurist and citizen. No man's death in this section of the state occasioned more sincere regret and the funeral was in striking evidence of this fact.

The legal fraternity of the four counties embraced in the district—Hancock, Brooke, Ohio and Marshall, was represented almost to a man, and in pursuance of the call issued by the Ohio County Bar Association, a meeting was held in the forenoon, at the court house, at which appropriate action on Judge Paull's demise, was taken. The funeral occurred at 2:30 p. m., from the residence of Mr. Henry M. Russell, South Front street, Island. The interment was private at Greenwood cemetery, attended only by the family relatives and members of the bar.

Rev. D. A. Cunningham, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which Judge Paull was a consistent member, conducted the exercises at the house and grave, reading fitting scriptural passages, and taking occasion, in his fervent prayer, to ask the Almighty's consolation for the bereaved widow and all those mourning the loss of a gentle and kindly man. Several beautiful selections were sung by a trio composed of Mrs. Flora Williams, Mr. S. Emerson and Mr. Jasper Baum. The remains were viewed by a large throng of people and the funeral cortege was one of the most imposing in recent years.

In accordance with the wishes of the family the Ohio county bar assisted in the funeral arrangements, and acting in accordance with the action taken at the meeting previously, the members attended in a body, a bow of crepe on their left arms being the badge of mourning. The committee in charge consisted of Messrs. T. S. Riley, W. P. Robinson and C. P. Flick. Sheriff H. C. Richards officiated as marshal. In addition to the lawyers there were a number of court officials. The pall bearers were: Judge H. C. Hervey, Judge Thayer Melvin, Judge George E. Boyd, W. P. Hubbard, Colonel Robert White, John A. Howard, William Erskine and Major W. J. W. Cowden.

Besides those enumerated there were the following members of the legal profession from the Pan Handle counties and court attaches and former court officials in carriages:

Judge G. L. Cranmer, Judge Campbell, Judge J. C. Palmer, sr., Judge Hugas.

Captain B. B. Dovenor, Senator O. S. Marshall, G. A. Dunnington, J. A. Ewing.

Col. Robert McEldowney, Col. George B. Caldwell, L. F. Jones, L. F. Stifel, Gen. Alfred Caldwell, Judge Jordan, J. E. Hooton, J. B. McClure.

J. J. Coniff, G. R. C. Allen, B. F. Meighen, T. J. Parsons, D. B. Evans, J. W. Ewing, B. S. Allison, J. B. Handlan.

T. M. Garvin, G. R. E. Gilchrist, S. B. Blair, C. A. Showacre.

W. C. Meyer, F. W. Nesbitt, C. C. Newman, J. B. Simpson.

C. S. Morrison, S. M. Noyes, J. B. Wilson, M. D. Post.

F. P. McNeil, Joseph Handlan, A. H. Wiedebusch, S. O. Boyce.

Thomas Boyd, J. F. Crea, E. E. Boyd, A. G. Fickerson.

J. C. Palmer, jr., F. A. Chapman, F. C. Cox, C. J. Schuck.

O. L. Holliday, J. W. Adams, C. A. Mabon, A. L. Sawtell.

Leon Friedeman, John J. O'Brien, Will Caldwell, W. H. Curtis.

I. C. Wright, R. M. Addleman, John Arbenz, Will Arnett.

Joseph B. Nealy, Lee Dobbs, H. E. Dunlap, Max Scrolowitz.

G. W. McCleary, J. E. Doyle, J. M. Baird, T. C. Moffat.

Richard Robertson, C. H. Henning, L. E. Schrader, J. J. Wilson.

Albert Emblem, Earl Barr, ex-Sheriff A. A. Franzheim, Leroy Stidger.

The meeting of the Ohio County Bar, at the court house in the forenoon, previously referred to, was largely attended. It was called to order by President George B. Caldwell. The committee on arrangements reported as to the number of vehicles to transport the members desirous of attending the funeral, and that for this purpose the members should meet at the court house at 1:30 p. m., and thence proceed to the home of Mr. Russell. The report was adopted and the action outlined was followed.

The next and only other proceeding was the reception of the report of the committee on resolutions, on which committee were Judges H. C. Hervey, T. J. Hugas and Thayer Melvin. Previous to the adoption of their report, Colonel Robert White took occasion to pay eloquent tributes to the memory of Judge Paull, and the sentiments uttered found a responsive chord in the hearts of all his auditors.

The resolutions were worded as follows:

The members of the bar and officers of the courts of the First Judicial circuit have assembled on the occasion of the death of Joseph R. Paull, one of the judges of the circuit, to testify to their great affection and esteem for him in life and to their sense of the great loss sustained by them and by the community in his untimely departure.

He had held for long an enviable position in the profession of his choice. As commissioner he took and held high rank. But it was as judge that we knew him best and loved him most. For more than a decade he was identified with the courts of the circuit, his reputation increasing with the years. His learning was extensive, his judgment sound. He presided with unfailing courtesy, yet with a firmness that insured against avoidable delay. His fairness and impartiality were never questioned. His industry not even failing health could lessen. His devotion to duty has never been excelled. Crowning all, he was a man who knew no guile. His life was as gentle as it was useful. Therefore,

Resolved, That we deeply deplore the death of Judge Paull and will ever affectionately hold in memory his high and endearing qualities of mind and heart.

Resolved, That as a further testimonial, we attend the funeral in a body.

The resolutions were ordered spread upon the records of the counties of Ohio, Marshall, Brooke and Hancock and published in the newspapers, and an engrossed copy presented to Mrs. Paull. To have the resolutions recorded in their respective county courts of the district this committee was appointed: Ohio county, Col. W. W. Arnett; Marshall, D. E. Evans; Brooke, J. F. Crea; Hancock, Senator O. S. Marshall.

GOOD COFFEE MAKER.

Experience With the Berry.

"I have gained twenty-five pounds since I left off coffee and began drinking Postum Food Coffee in its place.

"I had become very thin in flesh and suffered tortures with heartburn, was a nervous wreck with headache practically all the time until one dreadful day when the good doctor told me I must quit drinking coffee, as he had nothing left to relieve me.

"I could not drink tea, and had tried everything else, even Postum, but put it by at the first trial, because it was tasteless.

"Forced to it again, I determined to see if it could not be made palatable and found at once that when I followed directions and boiled it long enough, that I not only liked it but gave it to my husband, for several days without his finding it out. I have the name of making splendid coffee, and we always used the best, but of late I have given Postum to guests many times in place of coffee and have never been detected yet.

"Our four children have not drank coffee for three years, and all have gained health and flesh since using Postum. One son, who was always sick, has been greatly benefited by its use, and as above stated, I have gained twenty-five pounds since taking up Postum. I am healthier to-day than I have been for years, and give Postum all the credit. Please do not use my name in public."

This lady lives in Burlington, Des Moines county, Iowa, and the name will be furnished by the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich., to those interested.

INTERESTING

Was the Rumor in Circulation Last Night that the SOUTH STREET PROPERTY

Of Henry Biebersson had Been Purchased by the Baltimore & Ohio. Mr. Biebersson Denied that any Negotiations had Been Had—Six Thousand Barrels of Cement to be Used in the New Retaining Wall.

An interesting rumor was in circulation last night to the effect that Henry Biebersson, of South street, had sold his saloon property to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company. As the only use the railroad company could have for this property would be for a new passenger station at the site of the abandoned one at South street, the rumor was highly interesting. An intelligence reporter called on Mr. Biebersson and he denied that the property had been purchased or was to be bought by the railroad.

There is no longer any doubt of the intention of the Baltimore & Ohio to occupy its old passenger station site again, but whether the present antiquated station will be improved and added to or an entire new station erected remains to be seen, and just now the railroad people are quiet as claims and decline to give out any information.

The old bridge leading to the freight station is now being demolished and will be replaced by a steel structure. The wreckage that has remained since the demolition of the station by the flood of several years ago is also being cleared away, preparatory to work beginning on the new stone retaining walls by the contractors, Hallock & Holliday. This firm has contracted with Neill & Ellingham for 6,000 barrels of cement, so it will be seen that the work they are to do is quite extensive. The new retaining wall will give the railroad company all the room needed for the station buildings and platform, without the acquisition of the Caldwell-Peterson, Biebersson and Amick properties, on South street, it is claimed.

The Wheeling Clericus.

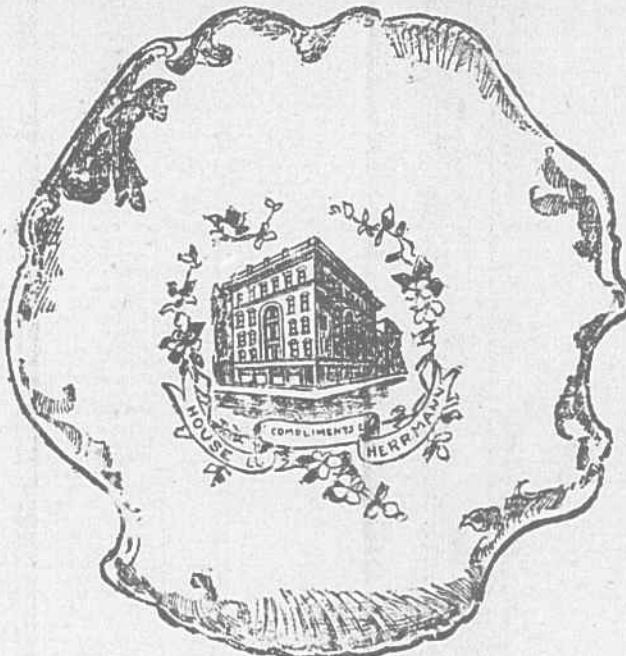

Protestant Episcopal ministers of Wheeling and surrounding towns convened yesterday in the first Wheeling clericus held for some time. The meeting was held at St. Matthew's P. E. church, and the clergy were entertained at luncheon by Rev. N. S. Thomas, rector of this church. Church government, parish work and matters of general interest were discussed entertainingly. Among those present were Rev. Messrs. Young, of Washington; Woods, of Mountville; Cowling and Hinkle, of Steubenville; Thomas, Brittingham, Doggett and Pick, of Wheeling; Williams, of Martin's Ferry.
